SOUTHERN STATES CRIME PREVENTION CONFERENCE

October 18 – 22, 2010
Sebring, Florida
at the Four Points
by Sheraton

Are you trying to keep up with the latest trends in crime prevention?
Have you ever tried to remember a crime watch coordinator's name and couldn't?
If you said "YES", then the Southern States Crime Prevention Conference is for you!

Begin Your Conference Week With An Exciting Presentation From Paul Mellor

Paul Mellor is President of Success Links, a memory training company dedicated to helping people improve their lives by improving their memory. As a finalist in the 2008 USA Memory Championship, Paul memorized the names of over 90 people in less than 15 minutes, memorized the order of a shuffled deck of playing cards in less than three and a half minutes and recalled over 100 single digit numbers after a five minute review.

Over the past few years, he has taught many in law enforcement techniques on how to remember names and faces.

Then, prepare for class instruction on:

- Lighting
- Gangs
- Employee Theft Prevention
- Sexting
- Internet Safety
- Public Speaking
- Elder Abuse
- And other topics

Check our web site for the most up-to-date list of classes

There will also be one day of specialized training in the security preparations for the American LeMans Series 12 Hours of Sebring Race. This event brings approximately 200,000 participants and spectators to the Sebring International Raceway for four days of racing and festivities. Classes will cover topics such as Coordinating Volunteers, Security for Vendors, Disaster Planning, Traffic Control and other related topics. In addition, professional driver training will be provided to all participants by Skip Barber Racing School instructors.
